GUIDE TO THE USE OF THIS JOURNAL

The Australian Official Journal of Patents (AOJP) reports on all the major events and actions which take place during the life cycle of an Australian patent and provides certain details of these actions as they relate to the patent or patent application involved. This guide sets out to teach the reader how to use the journal to access this information.

While there are many possible actions in the life of a patent, the majority of actions reported relate to the following events, which are the main stages in the progression of a patent application to a sealed patent:

(i) FILING –

This is the act of making an application. When the application is first filed certain details are published.

(ii) OPEN-TO-PUBLIC-INSPECTION (OPI) –

Approximately 18 months after first filing of an Australian or a corresponding foreign application, certain application documents, including the complete specification, become available to the public (Open-to-Public-Inspection or “OPI”). Relevant application details are published. In addition, an Abstracts Supplement to the AOJP contains abstracts of the inventive content of the OPI applications.

(iii) ACCEPTANCE –

This is the Commissioner’s acceptance of a patent application. Once the Commissioner has accepted a patent application, certain details of the application are published in the AOJP. In addition, an Abridgments Supplement contains an abridgment (usually the broadest accepted claim and relevant drawing where appropriate) for each accepted application. Notice of opposition may be filed within three months of advertisement of acceptance.

(iv) OPPOSITION –

If an opposition action is commenced against the grant of the patent, the six-figure acceptance number and the name of the opponent are published.

(v) SEALING –

Most accepted applications are not opposed. These proceed to sealing and become granted patents. Of the few that are opposed (less than 1%) most of these, after resolution of the opposition, proceed to sealing and become granted patents. Sealed patents are simply listed in order of their six-figure acceptance number.

In addition to the actions related to these stages, other actions reported include: assignments, lapsing or withdrawal of applications and ceasing or expiry of patents, voluntary amendments, extensions of time for certain actions and registration of licences.

How To Identify Information Using “INID” Numbers

Patents are published in many different languages. As a result, finding the information that you want (eg the filing date) on a patent document or in a journal can be quite difficult. There is an international system operating, however, which codifies this information in an unambiguous way, by assigning a specific number to each piece of information about the history of a patent. These numbers are called the international agreed Numbers for the identification of Data or INID numbers.

These numbers appear on all published patents and abstracts and are used throughout this journal to identify particular items of information. For example, the data on which a document is filed has the INID number (22), while the name of the applicant has the INID number (71). These numbers are always expressed in parentheses and always immediately precede the information to which they relate. For example:

(22) 12.10.91

means that the filing date of the document which contains this reference is 12 October 1991. Learning the INID numbers for the information you want will help you find it quickly and easily.

A complete list of the INID numbers and the items to which they relate is provided at the end of this Guide.

How Australia Patent Documents are Numbered

Patent applications in Australia are assigned numbers at various stages in their processing. Each Australian application which proceeds to acceptance will have at least two (and sometimes more) different numbers during its life. When searching for information and ordering documents it is vital that you understand the numbering systems.

1. Provisional Applications are given a number with two characters and four numbers

e.g. PM1234

A provisional application number is identified by the INID number (21).

2. Complete Applications are given a five-figure application number followed by the last two digits of the year of filing

e.g. 12345/93

There are prefixes applied to this number which indicate whether the application has been accepted:

A document corresponding to an unaccepted application has the prefix, AU-A; e.g. AU-A-12345/93.

A document corresponding to an accepted application carries the prefix AU-B; e.g. AU-B-12345/93.

Users need to be aware that an accepted document may differ from the corresponding unaccepted document. This is because amendment may occur between first publication (OPI) and second publication (acceptance).

A five-figure application number is identified by the INID numbers (11) or (21).

3. When a patent application is accepted it is given a six-figure document number in addition to the five-figure application number
e.g. 123456

This is the number you must use to keep track of the application in the AOJP from now on. It is identified by the INID number (10).

NOTE: When ordering any patent document from us, whether accepted or not, please quote the five-figure application number preceded by the appropriate prefix.

Arrangement of Information in the Journal

For each of the categories

- (i) Provisional Applications Filed,
- (ii) Complete Applications Filed
- (iii) Applications Open to Public Inspection, and
- (iv) Applications Accepted

The Journal lists the information published in that category in an alphabetical Name Index list based on the name of the applicant. These indices are useful if you wish to find information about applications made by a particular applicant.

In addition to the Name Index there is provided, for each of these categories, a Numerical Index. This index lists the applications either in order of their five-figure Application Numbers, in the case of complete applications filed and applications OPI, or in order of their six-figure Document Number in the case of accepted applications. It provides, for each number, the name of the applicant. These indices are useful if you wish to track the progress of a particular patent application.

There are also IPC indices provided for applications which are OPI and for applications which have been accepted. IPC stands for International Patent Classification. Each IPC "mark" is an alpha-numerical representation of a particular area of technology. These indices are in order of IPC mark, and within each mark provide either the five-figure application numbers of the applications which are now OPI or the six-figure numbers of the cases now accepted. These indices are useful if you wish to check on patent activity in a particular technology.

Using the Indices

1. To Find Patent Information If You Know the Name of the Applicant.

Use the Name Indices. They will give you the following information identified by their INID number:

ITEM	INID No.	ITEM	INID No.
A) Provisional applications filed – Name Index		B) Complete applications filed – Name Index

		Related by addition	(61)
		Related by division	(62)

You will notice at each stage of following an application through that all applications are in alphabetical order of Applicant, not inventor.

2. To Find Information About a Patent Application If You Know Its Number.

Use the appropriate numerical index. This will give you the name of the applicant from the number. You will then need to use the appropriate Name Index as above to find out other information about the Patent Application you are interested in.

The following Numerical Indices are available:

- A) Provisional Applications filed.
- B) Complete Applications filed.
- C) Applications Open to Public Inspection.
- D) Applications Accepted (note that this uses six-figure document numbers rather than five-figure application numbers).

3. To Find Information About Patent Documents in the Area of Technology in which You are Interested if You Know the International Patent Classification Mark for that Area.

All patent applications are classified according to their subject matter using the International Patent Classification (IPC). Although the system is very detailed and covers all technologies, knowledge of the IPC marks of the technologies you are interested in will allow you to find patent documents in these technologies quite easily. To identify the IPC marks of technologies you are interested in, you can inspect relevant documentation in any of IP Australia's state offices.

The indices to use are

- A) Applications OPI – IPC Index
- B) Applications Accepted – IPC Index.

These indices give you the numbers of the applications which are either OPI or Accepted and are listed in order of their IPC marks.

Once you have the numbers of the documents that interest you, consult the relevant Number Index (see 2. above) to find the applicant's name, and then the Name Index (see 1. above) to find out the details of that application.

ABSTRACTS OF DECISIONS

DECISION OF A DELEGATE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF PATENTS

Application	:	No. 762692 in the name of WARNER-LAMBERT COMPANY
Title	:	Modified Starch Film Compositions
Action	:	Application for an extension of time by CARDINAL HEALTH, INC to serve evidence in support, and an objection thereto by WARNER-LAMBERT COMPANY
Decision	:	Issued 20 May 2005.

Abstract

Request for extension of time granted.

The explanation justified an extension of time. While more detail was given at the hearing, nothing new was added. The main points set out in the request did not change.

While lack of utility was a ground of opposition which was distinct from the other grounds available (as per the comments of Gummow J in Lockwood Security Products Pty Ltd v. Doric Products Pty Ltd [2004] HCA 58 at 46 and 48), and gathering evidence for one should not necessarily delay the gathering and filing of evidence for the other, it is also plausible that there may be overlap between them that necessitates waiting for one to be completed before it can be served. Without knowing exactly what the evidence will be, it is not always possible to reach a conclusion one way or the other.

Despite submissions to the contrary, it seems clear from the explanations that a serious opposition is in train. In addition, the opponent's decision to perform commercial-scale experiments only after finding something worth investigating from laboratory experiments is reasonable. Naturally, if the opponent had not proceeded expeditiously in setting up commercial-scale experiments following their laboratory experiments, there might be some justification in refusing an extension. However, there was no evidence of this.

On balance the parties' interests supported an extension, as did the public interest in having a serious opposition decided on its merits.

Costs awarded against Warner-Lambert Company.

ABSTRACTS OF DECISIONS

DECISION OF A DELEGATE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF PATENTS

Application	:	No. 760716 in the name of Acres Gaming, Inc
Title	:	Method for Awarding Variable Bonus Awards to Gaming Machines over a Network
Action	:	Request for an extension of time to serve evidence in support of an opposition by Aristocrat Technologies Australia Pty Ltd.
Decision	:	Issued 20 May 2005.

Abstract

Application for an extension of time in which to serve evidence in support from 21 February 2005 to 12 April 2005 was granted.

Further time was also requested in which to file a statutory declaration. However, while terms could be applied to the service of the expert's declaration in a manner similar to that proposed by the delegates in Aristocrat Technologies Australia Pty Ltd v Acres Gaming Inc [2005] APO 16 (7 April 2005) and ExxonMobile Chemical Patents Inc v The Associated Octel Company Limited [2002] APO 34 (13 September 2002), a direction similar to that which issued in Ancor Packaging (Australia) Pty Ltd v Barokes Pty Ltd [2004] APO 20 (14 July 2004) was considered more appropriate given the agreement made by the parties at the hearing.

The direction was that:

- Providing the complete evidence in support is served on or before 21 May 2005, a grant the extension of time that has been sought by the patent applicant would be granted, otherwise, the extension will be refused.
- If new circumstances intervene that will prevent service of the evidence by 21 May 2005, these would likely need to be of a force majeure nature in order for reconsideration of the time for serving evidence in support to occur.

Consequently, the time for filing evidence in answer under Patents Regulation 5.1(2) will be three months from either the date of refusal of the extension of time or the date of filing of the declaration.
